Further, the VP & Elected Members pointed out that certain works of petty nature or procurement of items which are needed on urgent basis are not met out within the powers of CEO as per Section 127(1)b of Cantonments Act, 2006. On this, the CEO apprised that the financial powers as per General Financial Rules, 2017 has been revised for local purchases upto Rs. 2.50 lac but since the procurement of stores or execution of works beyond Rs.2.00 lac is through e-procurement, the Board may consider accordingly and may constitute a committee for this purpose. The Board resolved that CEO is authorized to execute works and for local purchase upto Rs.2.00 lac under the provisions of Section 26(1) and 127 (1) b of Cantonments Act, 2006 and for this purpose committee comprising of Assistant Engineer, Office Supdt and Storekeeper or dealing employee is constituted which will give its recommendations. The expenditure incurred should be brought to the notice of the Board in its next monthly meeting.
